The Raising of America: Early Childhood and the Future of Our Nation

<https://raisingofamerica.org/>

This fall, CT-AIMH presents a documentary film event series at the Connecticut Women's Consortium. You can participate in each event independently or ideally, join us for all three events.

This film contains five episodes however, we will combine episodes to create three events. After attending all three dates, you will have viewed the film in its entirety. We will begin each event with an introduction of the episode(s), acknowledgment of the event sponsors, film viewing and reflections. The events welcome anyone with a passion for infant and early childhood social justice and policy and advocacy for families with infants and young children.

THE RAISING OF AMERICA

The documentary series changing the conversation about early childhood

EPISODE 1: THE SIGNATURE HOUR.

The science is clear: when parents are stressed, babies pay the price. That is why improving conditions for families with young children is one of the best investments any nation can make.
