DO YOU...

- Provide reflective supervision/consultation to other early intervention/prevention professionals? Or do you aspire to do so?
- Help parents/caregivers "see" the infant/young child as a person?
- Recognize risks and disorders of infancy/early childhood and make appropriate referrals?
- Share with families an understanding and appreciation of family relationship development?

DO YOU...

- Help parents/caregivers recognize factors that constitute effective caregiving?
- Assist families to anticipate, obtain, and advocate for concrete needs and other services?
- Serve in a leadership/mentorship capacity?
- And more?

IF YOU ANSWERED YES...

You prevent barriers to the development of positive mental health in young children by giving attention to the primary adult relationships surrounding that child!
