Celebrate Babies is a national week-long campaign of Associations for Infant Mental Health raising awareness of the unique qualities and capacities of infants and the critical importance of relationship-based and attachment-building experiences.

This year during the week of October 20-24th, the CT-AIMH community honors and is inspired by the incredible impact babies have on us and our world.

During the Celebrate Babies Campaign week, we celebrate the individuals, families, groups and systems working to promote the well-being of infants, toddlers and their families.
